

Recently, the U.S. Marshal returned the Summons for Defendant Miller unexecuted, explaining that “nobody [was] home” on the first attempt and Defendant Miller’s father advised on the second attempt that Defendant Miller “no longer lives at [that] address.” [Doc. 23 at 1]. The Court, therefore, will order counsel for the North Carolina Department of Justice (NCDOJ) to consult with the NCDAC and confirm the correct last known address for Defendant Miller. The Court will order NCDOJ counsel to submit a status update and amended sealed document with Defendant Miller’s last known address and/or any additional information necessary or helpful to the U.S. Marshal to effect service, if appropriate, within ten (10) days of this Order.
